致敬传统 Celebrating Tradition

In this fast-changing world, traditions help anchor us. With each celebration comes the opportunity to remember family and friends, and what better way to show people they are being thought of than a beautiful food gift.

This year, in keeping with EQ's ethos of sustainability, we have designed our Mid-Autumn Festival gift boxes to be multifunctional as well as impressive. All our beautifully crafted Celestial Treasures are presented in gift boxes which can be repurposed as wearable fashion or keepsake boxes, ensuring the pleasure derived from the receiving of these gifts lasts long after the final, delicious bite.

I hope you will enjoy our selections of both traditional and creative new mooncake flavours, and look forward to seeing our presentation boxes make an impression on your associates and business acquaintances.

Happy Mid-Autumn Festival!

仲秋美玉

Autumn Jade Collection

The rabbit is a consistent character in all Chinese folklore relating to the Mid-Autumn Festival. In some tales, the rabbit is a companion to the Lady in the Moon; in others, it is the industrious chemist who helps the heavenly deities in the production of magical elixirs.

福寿绵长

Longevity Collection

The Mid-Autumn Festival was traditionally a time when the agrarian communities of China celebrated the safe storage of their harvests.

This period marked a time of rare relaxation, which was spent sipping tea and indulging in sweet mooncakes while admiring the full harvest moon.
